"MY BEST GIRL," METRO FEATURE AT THE PASTIME TODAY.

The Metro players present the scintillating comedy drama, "My Best Girl," at the Pastime this afternoon and evening. This production features the popular favorites, Max Flegman and Lois Meredith, and is pictured in five acts from the play. It is needless for us to comment on the supreme quality of the Metro pictures. Every man, woman and child in Maysville knows that the very name of Metro stands for the very best in photoplay. You have seen "At Bay," "Her Own Way," and many other Metro pictures and enjoyed every one of them, and we venture to say that you will like "My Best Girl" equally as well.

IN MIDSTREAM.

Writ of Attachment Served On the Owner of Steamer St. James For a Fuel Bill.

(Gallipolis Tribune.)

Chief Deputy Marshal T. E. Joyce of Parkersburg, halted the steamboat St. James at Marietta Saturday evening and served a writ of attachment issued in favor of the Parkersburg-Marietta Sand Company, on its action in admiralty to collect the sum of $49.95, the same being a bill for fuel. Rather than have the boat tied up, the owner paid the claim which, with interest and costs, amounted to about $50.

The original plan had been to serve the writ at Wheeling, but the boat did not stop there, but pushed on down the river on its way to New Orleans with a Mardi Gras excursion. Deputy Marshals notified Chief Deputy Joyce, who went to Marietta and laid for the coming steamer. To guard against similar tactics to those which evaded the writ at Wheeling, Deputy Joyce chartered a rowboat. Sure enough, the St. James did not show any signs of stopping at Marietta and the officer had himself rowed out to hailing distance, when he soon brought the vessel to a standstill. J. H. Klein, the owner, was aboard and when the deputy was transferred to the latter, he soon settled the bill, whereupon the St. James was allowed to proceed on her way. Captain Klein, a former counselman and excursion man of Pittsburg, bought the St. James for a mere song two years ago and recently sold the boat at a considerable profit. The St. James had fifty-three passengers for the Mardi Gras.

BRINGS $587

William Bartley Hauls a Load of Tobacco To Market Which Brings Him a Fat Check.

[Georgetown (O.) News-Democrat.] When William Bartley delivered a load of tobacco last week at the local loose leaf market he received $587 for it. The load was a large one and the tobacco was exceptionally fine. Mr. Bartley lives in Byrd township, but the fact that he received this amount for one load of tobacco points to the incentive which makes tobacco growing attractive to the farmers of Brown county, O. There have been a score of instances pointed out where growers have pulled down checks of goodly size for single loads of tobacco, but this is the largest reported.

The anthem sung by the regular quartet in the Christian church Sunday morning was exceptionally well rendered. It was highly complimented by the large congregation present. The quartet is composed of Miss Amy King, Mrs. H. H. Barkley, Boyd K. Muse and Dr. P. G. Smoot. This singing at both the regular services of the church as well as on special occasions is of a high order.

At a caucus meeting of the City Papples Saturday night Col. Isaac M. Childs, the popular cigar manufacturer of West Second street, was decided on for city assessor, the vacancy being caused by the resignation of Mr. James Stewart.
